

Please do not grant Bell South's request to deregulate broadband. This will drive small ISPs out of business or substantially raise the prices for those of us that don't enjoy dealing with insensitive conglomerates on a daily basis. As a government official your responsibility is to the people of this country, not the legal fictions known as corporations. Please don't let the little people down.